Global in scope, this original and thought-provoking collection applies new theory on legitimacy and legitimation to urban life. An informed reflection on this comparatively new topic in anthropology in relation to morality, action, law, politics and governance is both timely and innovative, especially as worldwide discontent among ordinary people grows. The ethnographically-based analyses offered here range from banking to neighbourhoods, from poverty to political action at the grassroots. They recognize the growing gap between the rulers and the ruled with particular attention to the morality of what is right as opposed to what is legal. This book is a unique contribution to social theory, fostering discussion across the many boundaries of anthropological and sociological studies.

Published in a pocket book format for ease of use, this is a truly unique and practical guide giving accurate metric equivalents and conversion factors for no fewer than 10,000 scientific units. Cardarelli has spent many years building up this complete range of US, British, conventional metric, historic systems and SI units, covering the worlds of science, technology and medicine. The charts and tables are readily referenced and coloured tabs denote the different sections while a slot-in user guide acts as a bookmark.

Qui se ressemble s'assemble, dit-on. Karl Bitter, le vieux cinéaste retiré sur la côte-d'Azur, qu'une jeune fille harcèle et traque jusqu'à l'aveu terrible ; l'homme noir devant le square assis jour et nuit sur un banc de solitude ; le rameur seul observé par son fils dans la lumière du matin ; le scénariste désabusé, le jardinier du cinéma de plein air, la vieille lady dans ses étranges nouvelles fonctions, la danseuse de San Francisco et les gentils rats de la Cinémathèque, est-ce qu'ils n'ont pas tous comme un air de familles ? Chacun d'eux a son secret, chacun est un mystère. Ce qui les réunit, du sous-sol d'une librairie de Menton à la véranda d'un palace de Ceylan et de Nice à Santa Monica, c'est une même façon d'être en marge du monde. Assassins, malades, prisonnier libéré, couple en fuite, aucun n'échappe à la seule peine capital que nulle loi n'abolira jamais : la douleur de vivre. Michel Grisolia, né en 1948 à Nice. Journaliste à L'Express, policier, scénariste (Le choix des Armes, L'Etoile du Nord, Le Grand Frère). Romancier : L'inspecteur de la Mer (au cinéma : Flic ou voyou), Haute Mer, Les Guetteurs.

Marguerite Duras is France's best-known and most controversial contemporary woman writer. Duras' influence extends from her early novels of the 1950's to her radically innovative experimental autobiographical text of the 1980's The Lover Leslie Hill's book throws new light on Duras' relationship to feminism, psychoanalysis, sexuality, literature, film, politics, and the media. Feted by Kristeva, and Laca who claimed her as almost his other self, Duras is revealed to be a profoundly transgressive thinker and artist. It will be a must for all concerned with contemporary writing, writing by women, recent European cinema, film and literature.

This revered guide to French restaurants, gourmet shops, cafes, and bars is available in English for the first time. Parisians rely on this book as the most informed, sophisticated, and up-to-date guide published today.
