MLA format follows the author-page method of in-text citation. This means that the author's last name and the page number (s) from which the quotation or paraphrase is taken must appear in the text, and a complete reference should appear on your Works Cited page.

MLA In-Text Citations: The Basics // Purdue Writing Lab

MLA is pretty easy to format if you can remember a few rules: Don't use a cover sheet. The first sheet of your paper is the first page of your essay. Number your pages with your last name and the page number in the upper-right-hand corner (see below)

Paper & bibliography format - MLA (Modern Language ...

The Modern Language Association (MLA) does not require you to create a cover page when you complete your research paper, but some instructors may require it. If your instructor requires your paper to have a cover page, here is how to make it (very easy). This cover page should include: your school name, your research paper title, your name, your class, your professor name and your paper due date.
